

Allison Bonvissuto is a 2009 graduate of Padua Franciscan High School. She was a 3 year member of the Color Guard team and served as one of the Color Guard captains her senior year. She also enjoyed performing and being a part of The Sound of Music and Les Miserables cast during her time at Padua. Allison served as the Color Guard Coach at Parma Senior High School for the 2014-2015 marching band season.

Besides growing up dancing primarily ballet and tap, Allison has been a part of Cleveland Dance Project since 2020 both performing and training in tap, musical theater, and jazz. Allison is a PreK teacher at Urban Community School, where she will begin her 12th year of teaching this August. She is also a mentor teacher for newer teachers participating in the Ohio Resident Educator Program and serves as the Level Leader for the PreK team at her school.
